

Let There Be Light

Genesis 1:1-5

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.² Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

³And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. ⁵God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

1. The Creation Story is a theological declaration, not a scientific explanation.
2. Chaos was there from the beginning, but so was God.
3. In separating light from darkness, God separated good from evil.
4. God will lead us into the light in the New Year.
